

Hon. Alan D. Albright

U.S. District Court, Western District of Texas, Waco, TX

Judge Albright is the federal district judge for the Western District of Texas, Waco Division. Judge Albright earned his J.D. from The University of Texas School of Law and clerked for The Honorable James R. Nowlin in Austin, Texas. From 1992–99, he served as a Magistrate Judge. Prior to taking the district court bench in 2018, Judge Albright practiced IP litigation as a partner in the Austin office of Bracewell, LLP. He was recently inducted into the American College of Trial Lawyers.

Michelle E. Armond

Armond Wilson LLP, Newport Beach, CA

Michelle is a founding partner of litigation boutique Armond Wilson LLP. She represents clients from small companies to the Fortune 500 in a broad range of high-stakes intellectual property disputes and has prevailed as lead counsel in IPRs, district court litigation, and Federal Circuit appeals. Michelle is a media commentator, invited speaker, and thought leader in intellectual property law and has been recognized as a top practitioner by Benchmark Litigation, IAM, and Thomson Reuters. She was previously partner and IPR practice group leader at a national IP firm. Michelle is a Caltech-trained electrical engineer, former Federal Circuit law clerk, and faculty for the Patent Resources Group's Advanced Federal Circuit law course.

Donald R. Banowit

Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox PLLC, Washington, DC

Don is a director in the litigation practice group at Sterne, Kessler, Goldstein & Fox PLLC, an intellectual property law firm located in Washington, DC. He has successfully represented clients in patent infringement actions across a wide variety of industries, including consumer and industrial products, electronics, software, and biotechnology. Don also has extensive experience in post-grant proceedings before the USPTO, and is a contributing author to Patent Office Litigation, a two-volume treatise on patentability challenges before the Central Reexamination Unit and Patent Trial and Appeal Board. He is a trained rocket scientist (B.S.E., Aerospace Engineering) and is a registered U.S. patent attorney. Don is a former member of the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

James R. Barney

Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner LLP, Washington, DC

James is a first-chair litigator specializing in all aspects of patent litigation and appeals. His litigation experience includes numerous patent trials in federal district courts, the International Trade Commission, the Patent Trial & Appeal Board, and before arbitration panels. James has also provided strategic advice in foreign patent proceedings, including in Germany, England, the Netherlands, Japan, and China. He also appears frequently at the Federal Circuit, and in 2016 he argued the en banc Aqua Products, Inc. v. Matal case, which resulted in significant changes in PTAB practice. He led Finnegan's appellate practice section for several years.

Brooks Beard

VMware, Inc., Mill Valley, CA

Brooks is the Vice President & Deputy General Counsel – Litigation, Employment, Cybersecurity, and Regulatory Compliance at VMware, where he oversees a global team of legal professions covering subject matter areas such as litigation, government inquiries and investigations, employment law issues, cybersecurity, regulatory compliance, and VMware’s Dawn Raid Program. He joined VMware in 2014 after spending 18 years in private practice, including 17 years at Morrison & Foerster in its San Francisco office, where he became a partner in January 2005. While at Morrison & Foerster, Brooks had a broad-based litigation practice representing clients in state and federal court, as well as before state and federal administrative agencies. Brooks received his B.A. from the University of California, Santa Barbara, his J.D., cum laude, from Vermont Law School, and his LL.M., with distinction, from the Georgetown University Law Center.

Hon. Cathy Ann Bencivengo

U.S. District Court, Southern District of California, San Diego, CA

Judge Bencivengo was appointed to the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California by President Barack Obama, and confirmed on February 10, 2012. Prior to her confirmation, she served as a U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Southern District since December 2005. Judge Bencivengo is a participant in the Southern District’s Patent Pilot Program and is a member of the District’s Patent Local Rules Committee. Before joining the bench, Judge Bencivengo was a partner with the law firm of DLA Piper (formerly Gray Cary), where she specialized in intellectual property litigation and was National Co-Chair of the firm’s Patent Litigation Practice Group. As a patent litigator, Judge Bencivengo represented both plaintiffs and defendants in a variety of technologies, including computer hardware and software, chemistry, immunology, semiconductor chip manufacturing, medical devices and consumer products. She was also the lead trademark and copyright litigation counsel for Dr. Seuss Enterprises, LLP. Judge Bencivengo attended Rutgers University in New Jersey, earning a B.A. in journalism and political science and an M.A. in political science as a Fellow at the Eagleton Institute of Politics. She received her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, magna cum laude. Judge Bencivengo is serving as a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference’s Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee.

Hon. Hildy Bowbeer

U.S. District Court, District of Minnesota, St. Paul, MN

Judge Bowbeer was appointed a U.S. Magistrate Judge for the District of Minnesota in June 2014. Prior to her appointment, she was an Assistant Chief Intellectual Property Counsel with 3M Company, where she managed IP litigation both in the U.S. and internationally. Judge Bowbeer received her law degree from the University of Michigan in 1979. Following her graduation, she clerked for the Minnesota Supreme Court before entering private practice. In 1985, she became one of the seven founding partners of Bowman and Brooke, and had a national practice in product liability litigation before joining 3M in 1997. Judge Bowbeer is a judicial advisor to The Sedona Conference and has contributed to its projects on Electronic Discovery, Patent Litigation Best Practices, and Trade Secret Litigation Best Practices. She serves on the Federal Practice

Committee for the District of Minnesota and co-authored the District's Guide for Practitioners on electronic discovery. She is also a member of the American Law Institute and the Hon. Jimmie V. Reyna Intellectual Property Inn of Court. She has authored a number of articles and speaks frequently in the U.S. and abroad on IP litigation management, electronic discovery, diversity and inclusion, and ADR.

Hon. Christopher J. Burke

U.S. District Court, for the District of Delaware, Wilmington, DE

Judge Burke has served as a U.S. Magistrate Judge on the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware since August 4, 2011. Judge Burke's civil caseload predominantly consists of patent litigation matters, and he often oversees such cases from their initial stages up through and including expert discovery, summary judgement and/or trial. Prior to joining the bench, from 2005 to 2011, Judge Burke was an Assistant U. S. Attorney for the District of Delaware. From 2001 to 2005, he was an associate at the Washington, D.C. office of the law firm of Covington & Burling LLP. Prior to that, he served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Kenneth F. Ripple of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Judge Burke currently serves as the Chairman of the Federal Trial Practice Seminar sponsored by the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware and the Federal Bar Association's Delaware Chapter. He also presides over the District Court's criminal Re-entry Court and assists in overseeing the administration of the District Court's Federal Civil Panel. Judge Burke created and oversees the District Court's High School Summer Fellowship Program. Judge Burke is a 2000 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School. He received his undergraduate degree from Georgetown University in 1997.

G. Brian Busey

Morrison & Foerster, Washington, DC

Brian is a Senior Counsel at Morrison & Foerster LLP where his practice focuses on complex intellectual property matters, especially those before the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) and in federal district courts. He has litigated over 50 Section 337 cases in a variety of areas, including patents, trademarks, and trade secrets. He is sought out as a speaker and has written extensively on ITC practice and procedure. Brian is a leader in the ITC Bar, and is a past President of the International Trade Commission Trial Lawyers Association (2011). Brian is recognized as leader in ITC practice by Chambers USA (2013-20) and Chambers Global (2014-20) and in Intellectual Property by Best Lawyers in America (2010-20). Brian was also recognized as the top lawyer in Washington, D.C. for Intellectual Property by the Washington Business Journal (2009). While earning his J.D., he was Editor of the Georgetown Law Journal. He was a law clerk to Judge John H. Pratt of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

Neel Chatterjee

Goodwin, Redwood City, CA

Neel is a thought leader in patent, trade secrets, and software issues and Internet law. He has significant experience litigating and trying extremely complex technology disputes, and has handled both complex criminal and civil trade secrets disputes. Neel has acted for many blue chip technology companies, and has handled high profile trade secrets disputes including Waymo v. Uber.

Hon. Clark S. Cheney
USITC, Washington, DC

Clark S. Cheney is an Administrative Law Judge at the U.S. International Trade Commission. Prior to his appointment at the ITC, Judge Cheney served as an ALJ with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and the Social Security Administration. He worked in the ITC's Office of the General Counsel for several years prior to becoming an ALJ. In that role, he regularly argued appeals to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit on behalf of the ITC. During several years of private practice, he represented domestic and international clients in intellectual property litigation. He began his career as a patent examiner and served as a law clerk to Judge William Bryson at the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Monte Cooper
Goodwin Procter LLP, Redwood City, CA

Monte is Senior Counsel Goodwin Procter LLP's Silicon Valley office and is a member of the firm's Intellectual Property Litigation Group. The focus of his practice is on patent and copyright litigation, particularly contexts that involve computer software and hardware, as well as network-related applications. He has represented many hi-tech companies in complex and high-profile patent litigation. Monte is a frequent speaker and writer on cutting-edge IP topics, and regularly contributes to his firm's appellate issues and Supreme Court practice. He also provides guidance on complex intellectual property licensing obligations. Prior to joining Goodwin, Monte was of Counsel at Orrick. He also was associated with firms in Pasadena, CA and Denver, CO. Monte the liaison between the Steering Committees for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9), Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10), and Working Group 12 on Trade Secrets (WG12).

Brian Edward Ferguson
Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, Washington, DC

Brian is Co-Head of Weil's Patent Litigation practice. With a degree in electrical engineering and nearly 30 years of experience representing innovator companies, Brian is regularly called upon to litigate cases before all of the major patent law venues in high-stakes IP disputes involving an array of sophisticated technologies. He has a broad range of first-chair trial and pre-trial experience in U.S. district courts, at the International Trade Commission, and before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board. Brian also has experience handling other intellectual property disputes, including trade secret, trademark, and copyright litigations. He is regularly recognized as a leader in patent law by international business and industry publications such as IAM Patent 1000, Managing Intellectual Property's IP Stars, and Legal 500.

Hon. William Tim Fink

USPTO, Alexandria, VA

Vice Chief Administrative Patent Judge Fink is currently on a detail as a Senior Legal Advisor to the Under Secretary and Director of the USPTO. Judge Fink earned his J.D., from Georgetown University, and electrical engineering degrees from the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel University. He began his career on the engineering staff at Lucent Technologies Bell Laboratories and then as a Senior Manager at Lucent's Intellectual Property Business Unit. Judge Fink was a partner in the IP litigation practice at Kirkland & Ellis, LLP prior to joining the Board in 2014.

Deborah E. Fishman

Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, Menlo Park, CA

Deborah is a partner in Arnold & Porter's Silicon Valley office, where she focuses her practice on intellectual property, with a particular emphasis on biopharmaceutical and medical device patent litigation. She has represented leading life sciences companies like Elan Pharmaceuticals, Alexion Pharmaceuticals, and Olympus Surgical in all aspects of complex patent litigation. Deborah has successfully represented Fortune 500 companies in business-critical patent cases and commercial disputes. She is registered to practice before the USPTO and has an active practice in post-grant contentious proceedings before the PTAB, before district courts, and on appeal to the Federal Circuit. Deborah has been recognized by LMG Life Sciences, IAM Patent 1000, The Legal 500 US and Managing Intellectual Property, where she has been named one of the Top 250 Women in IP since 2017.

Hon. Beth Labson Freeman

U.S. District Court, Northern District of California, San Jose, CA

Judge Freeman is a Judge on the Federal Court in the Northern District of California, appointed by President Obama in 2014. Judge Freeman sits in the San Jose Division, hearing a broad array of cases including antitrust, civil rights, consumer class actions, commercial litigation and technology cases including patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret cases. She serves on the Northern District's patent local rules and jury instruction committees. Judge Freeman previously was a Superior Court Judge in San Mateo County, California from 2001 to 2014. Judge Freeman served as Presiding Judge and Assistant Presiding Judge of the San Mateo Court. Prior to her appointment to the bench in 2001, Judge Freeman was deputy county counsel in San Mateo County, and an associate attorney at Lasky, Haas and Cohler in San Francisco and Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver and Jacobson in Washington, DC Judge Freeman is a graduate of the Harvard Law School and University of California, Berkeley.

Steven Geiszler

Huawei, Dallas, TX

Steven is U.S. Chief Intellectual Property Litigation Counsel for Huawei. Before going in-house, Steven practiced for 15 years at international law firms in Dallas, Texas, handling complex patent litigation in venues including the Eastern District of Texas, District of Delaware, and U.S. International Trade Commission. He received recognition from Chambers USA and Best Lawyers in America and has been quoted in publications such as Corporate Counsel, Managing IP, and Texas Lawyer. Steven has appeared as counsel of record in more than 150 U.S. patent litigation cases and has helped manage more than 60 cases for Huawei, including FRAND licensing disputes. Drawing on his science background, including three years as a biomedical researcher, Steven is a proponent of using data analytics in litigation management and lectures on that subject at Baylor Law School.

Robert Giles

Qualcomm Incorporated, San Diego, CA

Robert is Vice President and Legal Counsel in Qualcomm's litigation department where he manages both U.S. and foreign intellectual property and licensing related litigations. Prior to joining Qualcomm in 2012, he was with the IP litigation group at Morrison & Foerster LLP where he litigated IP disputes in the U.S. district courts and the International Trade Commission. Since joining Qualcomm, he has gained experience managing litigations in the U.S., China, and Europe. Robert received his J.D. from The George Washington University and his B.S.E.E. and B.A. from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign.

Nicholas Groombridge

Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, New York, NY

Nicholas is a partner in the Litigation Department at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP. Over the past 30 years, Nick has been extensively involved in all aspects of patent litigation, including trials (both bench and jury). He has been lead counsel in over 150 patent infringement actions in federal district courts and has successfully argued more than 30 cases in the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Nick has litigated patents in a wide variety of technical areas, including software, semiconductors, pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, wireless networking, consumer electronics, specialty chemicals, automotive parts, financial services and medical devices. He is ranked in Chambers Global and Chambers USA as a Band 1 practitioner for Intellectual Property: Patent. He has also been recognized in Benchmark Litigation, Lawdragon, The Legal 500 and Managing Intellectual Property. Nick is active in several professional societies including the Federal Circuit Bar Association.

Benjamin Grzimek

Fieldfisher (Germany) LLP, Düsseldorf, Germany

Ben is a partner at Fieldfisher. The focus of his practice is on advising and representing clients in patent litigations. He has worked for small, medium, and large corporations from all industries. Ben's expertise includes co-ordination in cross-border disputes, planning and execution of strategies for both enforcement campaigns and the defence against such attacks. In addition, he has acted both as counsel and as an arbitrator in several patent and license related arbitrations. Another focus is on litigating standard essential patents. Ben has advised and represented both plaintiffs and defendants in more than 50 cases and is familiar with the various particular legal issues in such disputes, especially the FRAND defence. He further advises and represents clients in and litigates trade secret cases with a technical focus. Ben is a member in the intellectual property associations GRUR, VPP, and LES. He has published on various aspects of patent and licensing law and is a frequent speaker on these topics.

Hon. Melissa Haapala

USPTO, Denver, CO

Lead Administrative Patent Judge Haapala decides appeals arising from adverse decisions of Examiners at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and presides over trials to determine patentability of claims in patents subsequent to issuance. She holds a law degree from the University of Denver College of Law, a Master of Science degree in Computer Information Systems, Management of Technology from Regis University, and a Bachelor of Science degree in Applied Mathematics from the University of Colorado. Judge Haapala worked as a staff software engineer for Storage Technology and then she practiced at several law firms, including Blakely Sokoloff Taylor & Zafman, and Townsend and Townsend and Crew. Following her time in private practice, she served as Senior Counsel at Sun Microsystems and as Assistant General Counsel at Ricoh. Judge Haapala joined the Board in 2014.

Haifeng Huang

Jones Day, Hong Kong

Haifeng co-chairs Jones Day's intellectual property practice in China and is regularly called on to lead teams and advise clients on their complex business disputes and intellectual property matters. He has a broad practice covering disputes and transactions involving patents, trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, unfair competition, antitrust, and technology licenses. Haifeng has advised clients on cases in intellectual property courts and other courts and agencies throughout China, as well as before multiple arbitration tribunals. These cases have involved a diverse range of industries, including software and systems, semiconductors, telecommunications, electronics, textiles, chemicals, optics, consumer products, heavy machinery, medical devices, and biotechnology. Haifeng is a frequent speaker on China intellectual property issues and has been recognized for his work in World IP Review, Managing Intellectual Property, IAM Patent, and Chambers Asia-Pacific. Haifeng is a current member of the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9), Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

R. Eric Hutz

Reed Smith LLP, Wilmington, DE

Eric is a partner in the firm's Intellectual Property, Innovation and Information Practice Group. His practice over the last 30 years involves patent litigation in Federal Court on behalf of patent owners and defendants, focusing on a variety of technical fields and also involves patent licensing, transaction due diligence studies, and valuing patent portfolios. Eric is a member of the AIPLA, Federal Circuit Bar Association, Federal Bar Association and Licensing Executives Society. He has lectured to various groups on a wide range of patent related topics, including patent damages. Eric graduated from Lehigh University and the George Washington University Law School. He is currently serving as Chair of The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9), after first joining the Steering Committee for WG9 and also Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) in January 2015.

Hon. Andrei Iancu

USPTO, Alexandria, VA

In his role as the Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, Andrei provides leadership and oversight to one of the largest intellectual property offices in the world. He also serves as the principal advisor to the President, through the Secretary of Commerce, on domestic and international intellectual property policy matters. Prior to joining the USPTO, Andrei was the Managing Partner at Irell & Manella LLP, focusing on intellectual property litigation. He appeared in a variety of high-profile matters in front of the USPTO, U.S. district courts, the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the U.S. International Trade Commission. He has represented clients across the technical and scientific spectra. Andrei taught patent law at the UCLA School of Law and has written and spoken publicly on a variety of intellectual property issues. Prior to his legal career, he was an engineer at Hughes Aircraft Company. Among his legal community accolades, the Daily Journal, California Lawyer magazine, Los Angeles Business Journal, Chambers USA, Best Lawyers in America, and many others have acknowledged his expertise in commercial litigation and intellectual property law. He has been the recipient of the Patent and Trademark Office Society 36th Annual Rossman Award, the Hughes Aircraft Malcolm R. Currie Innovation Award, and the Melville B. Nimmer Copyright Award. Andrei holds a J.D. from the UCLA School of Law. He has a M.S. in Mechanical Engineering and a B.S. in Aerospace Engineering, both from UCLA.

Philip Staton Johnson

Johnson-IP Strategy and Policy Consulting, New Hope, PA

Phil is founder and principal of Johnson-IP Strategy and Policy Consulting and Chair of the Steering Committee of the Coalition for 21st Century Patent Reform. Previously, he was Senior Vice President-Intellectual Property Policy & Strategy, Johnson & Johnson, a member of the Executive Committee & Immediate Past President of the Intellectual Property Owners Association, a member of the Board of the Intellectual Property Owners Association Education Foundation (Past President), of the Association of Corporate Patent Counsel (Past President), INTERPAT (Past President) and of PhRMA's IP Focus Group (Chair Emeritus). He has also testified repeatedly before Congress on patent reform issues. In 2013, he was awarded the NJIPLA Jefferson Medal. Phil received his B.S., cum laude from Bucknell, and his J.D. degree from Harvard. Phil is a member of the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

Hon. Kent A. Jordan

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, Wilmington, DE

Judge Jordan was appointed in 2006 to serve as a U.S. Appellate Judge for the Third Circuit. Prior to that, he was a U.S. District Judge for the District of Delaware from 2002 to 2006. He received a B.A. in Economics in 1981 from Brigham Young University and a J.D. in 1984 from Georgetown University, where he was Articles Editor for the Georgetown Law Journal. From 1984 to 1985, Judge Jordan was a law clerk for The Hon. James L. Latchum, a judge on the district court where Judge Jordan later served. He is a former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Delaware and, from 1991 to 1992, was Chief of the Civil Division in that office. Prior to taking the bench, Judge Jordan served as an officer and as a member of the boards of directors of privately held businesses, and was a partner in a Wilmington, Delaware law firm, with a practice focused on intellectual property, corporate, and commercial litigation. Judge Jordan is an Adjunct Professor of Law at the University of Pennsylvania and Vanderbilt University, and is a member of the American Law Institute. He also serves as an officer and trustee of American Inns of Court Foundation. Judge Jordan is serving as a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee.

Hon. Michael Kim

USPTO, Alexandria, VA

As of September 14, 2020, Judge Kim serves as a Vice Chief Administrative Patent Judge for Operations at the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). Judge Kim was appointed as an Administrative Patent Judge on April 24, 2011, and as a Lead Judge in August of 2013. Prior to his appointment, Judge Kim was a patent attorney for the PTAB. In addition to his management responsibilities, which includes managing the PTAB's ex parte appeals inventory and overseeing the Judicial Law Clerk program, Judge Kim has conducted hundreds of inter partes reviews and post-grant reviews under the America Invents Act (AIA), and reviewed over a thousand adverse decisions of examiners upon applications for patents. He works primarily in the business methods, mechanical, and electrical technology areas. Prior to joining the USPTO, Judge Kim was a patent attorney at Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner, LLP. Judge Kim received his law degree from the Duke University School of Law, where he was a founding member of the Duke Law and Technology Review, and a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he also holds concentrations in Economics, Political Science, and Writing.

Christine Lehman

Reichman Jorgensen LLP, Washington, DC

Christine focuses on patent litigation in U.S. district courts and the U.S. International Trade Commission, as well as the coordination of international litigation and patent office proceedings. She has been involved in dozens of ITC 337 investigations and has filed several ITC complaints on behalf of clients ranging from medical device manufacturers to developers of video game technology. Christine is currently the leader of Finnegan's Litigation practice. Prior to joining Finnegan, Christine served as an investigative attorney in the Office of Unfair Import Investigations of the ITC. She also devotes significant amount of time to pro bono cases in D.C. local courts as well as the Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims.

Steven Lieberman

Rothwell, Figg, Ernst & Manbeck, P.C., Washington, DC

Steven is a shareholder at the Washington, D.C. intellectual property firm of Rothwell, Figg, Ernst & Manbeck, P.C. He has been litigating patent and other intellectual property cases since 1991, and he has served as lead counsel in numerous lawsuits in the pharmaceutical, biotech, veterinary, and medical products fields, including handling more than 30 Hatch-Waxman litigations. Steven has experience representing both generic and brand name companies across district courts, the Federal Circuit, and the International Trade Commission. He also handles and argues post-grant proceedings (IPRs and CBMs) created by the America Invents Act, and he regularly advises clients on biosimilars issues. Steven received a B.A. degree from Princeton University, summa cum laude, in 1980 and a J.D. degree from Columbia University Law School in 1984.

Josephine Liu

Sandoz Inc., Princeton, NJ

Josephine is head of U.S. IP Litigation at Sandoz where her practice focuses on patent litigation of biopharmaceutical cases for Sandoz pipeline products both in district court and the Patent Trial and Appeal Board. She directs U.S. patent litigation strategy for Sandoz on drug products, and also manages Sandoz's US IP Litigation team. Prior to joining Sandoz, Josephine was with Axinn Veltrop & Harkrider LLP and Goodwin Procter LLP where she tried high profile patent infringement cases involving pharmaceutical products in several federal district courts. Josephine received her J.D. from Fordham School of Law, a Ph.D. in bio-organic chemistry from the University of Pennsylvania, and a bachelor's degree in Chemistry from Cornell University and is a registered U.S. Patent Attorney. Josephine serves on ACI's Hatch-Waxman Series Advisory Board (2017-present).

David Long

Essential Patent LLC, Oak Hill, VA

David founded the Essential Patent LLC intellectual property law firm which focuses on patent law legal counseling, and is a co-founding member of the Ergoniq LLC law firm that handles intellectual property and general business disputes. He has over 20 years of experience leading complex patent litigation in U.S. federal courts and the USPTO. David counsels domestic and international clients to resolve intellectual property disputes in telecommunications and other high-technology areas. He is a leader in global intellectual property law organizations, and often speaks on significant patent law issues. The U.S. Congress and White House have sought his views on patent policy issues. David is a recognized thought leader on standard essential patents. His Essential Patent Blog is followed by decision makers in industry, the judiciary and competition authorities throughout the world. David clerked at the Federal Circuit, has a master's degree in electrical engineering, and several years of communications engineering experience.

Hon. Barbara M.G. Lynn

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas, Dallas, TX

Prior to assuming the federal bench in 2000, Judge Lynn was a partner with Carrington, Coleman in Dallas. She was designated by the National Law Journal in 1998 as one of the 50 most influential women attorneys in the country. She served as chair of the ABA's Section of Litigation and Judicial Division and received SMU's Distinguished Alumni Award for private practice in 1999. Judge Lynn was the first recipient of the Louise Raggio award, given by the Dallas Women Lawyers Association for her contributions to the profession. In 2010, she was recognized by the International Women's Forum with the Women Who Make A Difference Award. In 2011, an intellectual property American Inn of Court chapter was designated The Honorable Barbara M. G. Lynn American Inn of Court. Judge Lynn graduated first in her law school class at SMU. She is serving as a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference's Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee. She received the State Bar's Samuel Pessarra Outstanding Jurist Award in 2019. Judge Lynn is vice president of the American Inns of Court.

Frances E. Marshall

Apple Inc., Washington, DC

Frances is a Senior Standards Counsel and member of the Standards and Open Source team in the Intellectual Property (IP) & Licensing department at Apple Inc., where she helps develop and implement Apple's global standards-advocacy activities and counsels clients on standards and IP-policy related legal matters. Previously, Frances worked in the Antitrust Division at U.S. Department of Justice as the senior staff expert on IP in the context of competition law enforcement, domestic and international competition advocacy, and appellate litigation. During the 2019-2020 academic year, she was the DOJ Chair at the National War College. Before joining the Antitrust Division, Frances was an Attorney-Advisor in the General Counsel's Office at the U.S. International Trade Commission. She clerked for the Honorable Raymond C. Clevenger, III of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and worked in private practice. Frances received her law degree from the University of California, Berkeley School of Law, after graduating magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from Carleton College, and spending two years in West Africa as a Peace Corps volunteer. While at Berkeley Law, she was Managing Editor of the International Tax and Business Lawyer.

Prof. Peter S. Menell

UC Berkeley School of Law, Berkeley, CA

Peter is the Koret Professor of Law at UC Berkeley School of Law, co-founder and Director of the Berkeley Center for Law & Technology, and co-founder and Faculty Director of the Berkeley Judicial Institute. Professor Menell joined the law faculty at the University of California at Berkeley in 1990, where his research and teaching have focused on intellectual property law. He has authored more than 100 articles and 15 books, including leading casebooks and intellectual property treatises. Professor Menell has organized more than 60 intellectual property education programs for the Federal Judicial Center since 1998. He is the lead author of the Patent Case Management Judicial Guide, now in its third edition. Professor Menell earned his S.B. from MIT, his Ph.D. (economics) from Stanford University, and J.D. from Harvard Law School.

Rubén Muñoz

Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, Philadelphia, PA

Rubén is a partner at Akin Gump, where he practices IP law with an emphasis on patent and trade secret litigation. He has represented companies in cases involving a wide array of technologies, including medical devices, biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, and electronics. Rubén has represented clients in federal and state court and before the International Trade Commission. In addition, he has represented clients in over 50 inter partes review proceedings before the PTAB, the majority of them as lead counsel. Before attending law school, Rubén spent five years at Ford Motor Company's Scientific Research Laboratory, where he worked as an engineer on the development of advanced engine technologies. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Law School and holds a certificate in business and public policy from the Wharton School. Rubén has a master's in mechanical engineering and a bachelor's in chemical engineering from Louisiana State University.

Hon. Kathleen McDonald O'Malley

Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, Washington, DC

Judge O'Malley was appointed to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit by President Obama in 2010. Prior to her elevation to the Federal Circuit, Judge O'Malley was appointed to the U. S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio by President Clinton in 1994. Prior to her appointment to the bench, Judge O'Malley served as First Assistant Attorney General, Chief of Staff, and Chief Counsel to the Attorney General for the State of Ohio. Judge O'Malley was also in private practice with Jones Day and Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur. Judge O'Malley began her legal career as a law clerk to the Hon. Nathaniel R. Jones, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. She received her J.D. from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 1982, summa cum laude and Order of the Coif, she received her A.B. from Kenyon College in 1979, magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa, and she also received an honorary LL.D. from Kenyon in 1995. Judge O'Malley is a Judicial Advisor for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and

DIALOGUE LEADERS

The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) Steering Committee. For her contributions to intellectual property law during her 25 years on the bench, Judge O'Malley has been awarded the Sedona Conference Lifetime Achievement Award, the New Jersey Intellectual Property Law Association Jefferson Medal, and the New York Intellectual Property Law Association Outstanding Public Service Award, and named to Globe Business Media Group's IP Hall of Fame.

Dr. Matthew A. Pearson

Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, Philadelphia, PA

Matthew is a Partner at Akin Gump in Philadelphia. He litigates patent cases about pharmaceuticals, chemistry and biology, with a particular focus on biologics and antibody technology. Matt holds a Ph.D. in biochemistry, and in his work as a scientist, he focused on the mechanism and three-dimensional molecular structures of proteins using x-ray crystallography. He is an Adjunct Professor at Penn Law, teaching patent litigation.

Matthew D. Powers

Tensegrity Law Group, San Francisco, CA

Matt is a founding partner of Tensegrity Law Group, a patent firm formed in 2011. He tries patent cases, trade secret cases, fraud cases, and antitrust cases, and has led teams winning billion-dollar cases for many of the leading companies in the world. Matt is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and of the International Society of Barristers. He is regularly recognized by leading publications as one of the top practitioners in the field of patent litigation, and as a thought leader on issues affecting the profession. In 2010, Managing Intellectual Property magazine named him "Outstanding IP Practitioner of the Year." Matt is the Chair of The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) and Vice-Chair of Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9).

Teresa Rea

Crowell & Moring LLP, Washington, DC

Teresa "Terry" is a co-vice chair of the Intellectual Property Group at Crowell & Moring LLP, in Washington, DC. Prior to joining Crowell, she served as Acting Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Acting Director of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). Terry focuses on intellectual property and dispute resolution related to pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and other life science issues. Terry is the former president of the American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA) and a past president of the National Inventors Hall of Fame. She is a licensed pharmacist. Terry obtained her Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University and her Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Michigan. Managing IP identified her as one of the Top 50 Most Influential People in Intellectual Property (2013). IAM Strategy 300 selected her as one of The World's Leading IP Strategists (2015). She was also named one of Law360's Top 25 Icons of IP (2016). In 2018, she received the Patent and Trademark Office Society's Pasquale J. Federico Memorial Award in recognition of her outstanding contributions to the patent and trademark systems of the United States. In May, she was selected to be inducted into the IP Hall of Fame. She has also been recognized in the 27th Edition of The Best Lawyers in America in the Biotechnology and Life Sciences Practice. Terry is Vice-Chair of The Sedona Conference Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10) and is a member of Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) Steering Committee.

Dr. Beatriz San Martin

Arnold & Porter, London, United Kingdom

Beatriz focuses her practice on the life sciences sector and innovative technologies. She has significant first-chair experience handling cases before the UK Courts and the Court of Justice of the European Union, including high-profile European litigation. In addition to her patent and SPC experience, she also counsels on and litigates other IP rights including copyright, trademark, passing off, design rights, database rights and confidential information. Her cases have involved a wide range of technologies including pharmaceuticals, medical devices, agrochemicals, insulation products, software, medical imaging and mosquito nets—the last of which concerned technical trade secrets and led to her involvement in the largest ever confidential information case litigated in England & Wales.

David Saunders

Juniper Networks, Sunnyvale, CA

Dave is the Director of Litigation at Juniper Networks, a role he has held since June of 2019 and is responsible for all litigations and other disputes that Juniper faces. The majority of the litigation for which Dave is responsible is patent litigation brought by patent holders against Juniper. Prior to joining Juniper, Dave worked in-house for Immersion Corporation, where he was responsible for patent licensing and litigation efforts. Before going in-house, Dave practiced patent litigation in private practice at Dechert LLP, Kaye Scholer LLP, and Fisch Sigler LLP, representing companies in high-stakes patent litigations in Federal Courts around the country. Dave has a Computer Science & Engineering degree from Bucknell University and a JD from Santa Clara University School of Law.

Mark Selwyn

WilmerHale, Palo Alto, CA

Mark is a partner in the Litigation/Controversy Department, co-chair of the Intellectual Property Litigation Practice Group, and a member of the firm's Management Committee. Major corporations rely on him to litigate biomedical, electrical, chemical, mechanical, and business method patents involving a diverse array of technologies. He represents Silicon Valley's most prominent technology companies in patent and other intellectual property cases in federal courts throughout the country and before the International Trade Commission (ITC). Mark was named to the Daily Journal's exclusive list of Top Intellectual Property Lawyers for the tenth time in 2019. He was also recognized for exceptional standing in the legal community in the area of intellectual property in Chambers USA (2005-2020). In 2017, Mark was recognized by the Burton Awards and received the Law360 Distinguished Writing Award. Mark is also Vice President of California ChangeLawyers, the leading California philanthropy for diversity, equity and inclusion in the legal profession.

Bridget Smith

Lowenstein & Weatherwax LLP, Los Angeles, CA

Bridget is a partner at Lowenstein & Weatherwax and has extensive experience litigating AIA trials before the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office and complex patent cases in U.S. district courts. She has represented industry-leading companies in diverse technology areas, including semiconductors, computer hardware and software, business methods, and medical devices. Before joining Lowenstein & Weatherwax in 2019, she was a partner and co-chair of the Patent Office Trials practice group at Knobbe Martens. Before practicing law, Bridget worked as an engineer at Motorola Semiconductor Products (now NXP) and as a data scientist at Khimetrics (now part of SAP). She is vice chair of the American Bar Association Section of Intellectual Property Law's USPTO Post-Grant Patent Practice and Policy Committee, co-chair of the Orange County chapter of ChIPs, and was named as one of the Top 50 Women in PTAB Trials by the PTAB Bar Association.

Hon. Gail J. Standish

U.S. District Court, Central District of California, Los Angeles, CA

Judge Standish is a U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Central District of California. Prior to her appointment, Judge Standish was a partner at Winston & Strawn LLP, focusing her practice on patent litigation and other complex business disputes. Before joining Winston & Strawn, Judge Standish served as an Assistant U. S. Attorney for the Central District of California, and as a law clerk for the late Judge William J. Rea. She began her career at Irell & Manella LLP, and practiced at Gibson Dunn & Crutcher LLP. Judge Standish has been selected as one of California's Top Intellectual Property Litigators and Top Women Litigators by the Los Angeles and San Francisco Daily Journals. She has been named an Angelino To Know In Intellectual Property Law by the L.A. Business Journal, and ranked in the IAM Patent 1000 "World's Leading Patent Practitioners." Judge Standish graduated from UCLA Law School, where she served as an Articles Editor of the UCLA Law Review, and was elected to the Order of the Coif upon graduation. Judge Standish earned a Bachelor's and Master's Degrees from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Richard J. Stark

Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, New York City, NY

Rick is a partner in Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP's Litigation Department. His practice emphasizes intellectual property, antitrust, and other technologically intensive litigation for both plaintiffs and defendants. For almost 30 years, Rick has litigated patent infringement and antitrust cases in areas including pharmaceuticals and biotechnology, software and computer systems, microelectronics, automotive engines, and chemical processes. He has represented a range of clients including Qualcomm, Alarm.com, IBM, Xerox, Bristol-Myers Squibb and Mylan. Rick is a registered patent attorney and is admitted to practice in New York, California and Connecticut, as well as the Federal Circuit, and numerous other federal courts. He received an A.B. from Harvard College, with a dual concentration in Government and Computer Science; an M.S. in Computer Science from the Columbia University School of Engineering and Applied Science; and a J.D. from New York University School of Law. Rick joined Cravath in 1991 and became a partner in 1999.

Jonathan Stroud

Unified Patents, LLC, Washington, DC

Jonathan is Chief IP Counsel at Unified Patents Inc. Prior to Unified Patents Inc., he was a patent litigator for Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner LLP, and a former medical devices patent examiner at the USPTO. He has examined, prosecuted, counseled, and litigated patent, trademark, and licensing disputes, focusing on PTAB litigation. Involved in some of the earliest America Invents Act patent challenges, Jonathan handled many IPRs and appeals, representing clients such as LG, Eli Lilly & Co., BMW, Bausch & Lomb, and Freedom Innovations on covered business method and inter partes reviews. He earned his J.D. with honors from the American University Washington College of Law; his B.S. in Biomedical Engineering from Tulane University; and his M.A. in Print Journalism from the University of Southern California. He teaches, writes, and speaks regularly, and his work has been cited by the district court and in briefs to the district, appellate, and Supreme Court. Jonathan is a member of the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9) and Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

Eley O. Thompson

Foley & Lardner LLP, Chicago, IL

Eley is a partner and intellectual property lawyer with Foley & Lardner LLP where he focuses on litigation, client counseling and prosecution of patents, trade secrets, and trademarks. He has more than 23 years of experience litigating patent, trade secret, and trademark matters for both property owners and respondents, and has led litigation teams handling complex cases involving patents and trade secrets. His experience spans many diverse technologies. In addition to litigation, Eley has handled post-grant proceedings before the USPTO, including interference proceedings. He also counsels on intellectual property strategy and handles prosecution of large intellectual property portfolios.

Anthony Trenton

WilmerHale LLP, London, United Kingdom

Anthony is a litigation partner in WilmerHale's London office, and a member of the Intellectual Property Litigation Practice Group, with 25 years of experience handling all stages of English patent litigation, from before commencement of proceedings through to trial and appeal. He has conducted cases up to the highest level in the UK, including the House of Lords (Kirin-Amgen -v- Hoechst Marion Roussel and TKT), and the UK Supreme Court. Anthony is a Solicitor-Advocate and has exercised his advocacy rights in the High Court. Chambers UK has ranked Anthony among the leading lawyers for patent litigation in the UK. He has also been recognized by Legal 500, Legal Experts, IP Stars Handbook and Super Lawyers. Anthony currently serves as a member of the Steering Committee for The Sedona Conference Working Group 9 on Patent Damages and Remedies (WG9), Working Group 10 on Patent Litigation Best Practices (WG10).

Vaishali Udupa

Hewlett Packard Enterprise, Reston, VA

Vaishali is Vice President, Associate General Counsel for Litigation at Hewlett Packard Enterprise. In addition to handling commercial and employment litigation matters, her team handles all of HPE's IP litigation, including patent, copyright, IP licensing and trade secret claims. She is a winner of the HPE Women's Excellence Award, recognizing extraordinary women across HPE, the recipient of the National Bar Association's 2020 Diversity in Tech and IP Award, DCA Live's Top Corporate Counsel Award, and for the past five years, Managing Intellectual Property named her a "Corporate IP Star." Prior to joining HP in 2011, Vaishali was an associate at Jones Day and Pennie & Edmonds. She earned her J.D. from American University's Washington College of Law, and her B.S., in Civil Engineering from the University of Virginia.

Richard Vary

Bird & Bird LLP, London, United Kingdom

Richard is a partner in Bird & Bird's Intellectual Property Practice and Tech and Comms sector Group, based in London, focusing on mobile telecommunications patent litigation and arbitration work. Before joining Bird & Bird in 2016, Richard was the Vice President and Head of Litigation at Nokia, where he managed Nokia's global commercial litigation and a member of Nokia's Legal & Compliance leadership team. During his time at Nokia he managed cross border patent litigations between Nokia and KPN, ICom, Apple, HTC, Blackberry and Viewsonic, and was involved in the dispute with Qualcomm having overall responsibility for the actions in China. He also managed Nokia's ground-breaking arbitration on Standards Essential Patent valuations with Samsung and LG. Richard is a regular public speaker on issues such as cross-border patent litigation, the UPC and standard essential patents. He sits part time as a District Judge in London and the South East, and in the Intellectual Property Enterprise Court.

Kathi Vidal

Winston & Strawn, Menlo Park, CA

Managing partner of Winston & Strawn's Silicon Valley office, Kathi is a leading patent litigator and Federal Circuit advocate. Recognized for trying high-profile, high-stakes, and high-tech patent disputes for leading companies, her experience covers a myriad of technologies. In addition to protecting innovative companies through offensive patent actions to preserve their market or through innovative strategies to efficiently resolve defensive patent actions, including in U.S. district courts, the International Trade Commission, and at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, Kathi advises clients ranging from Fortune 100 companies to start-ups on their portfolios, patent prosecution, inter partes review, covered business methods, trade secrets, trademarks, and other intellectual property matters. Kathi has obtained numerous wins including a preliminary injunction, permanent injunctions, exclusion orders, a contempt finding, attorney fee awards, patent invalidations and treble damages.